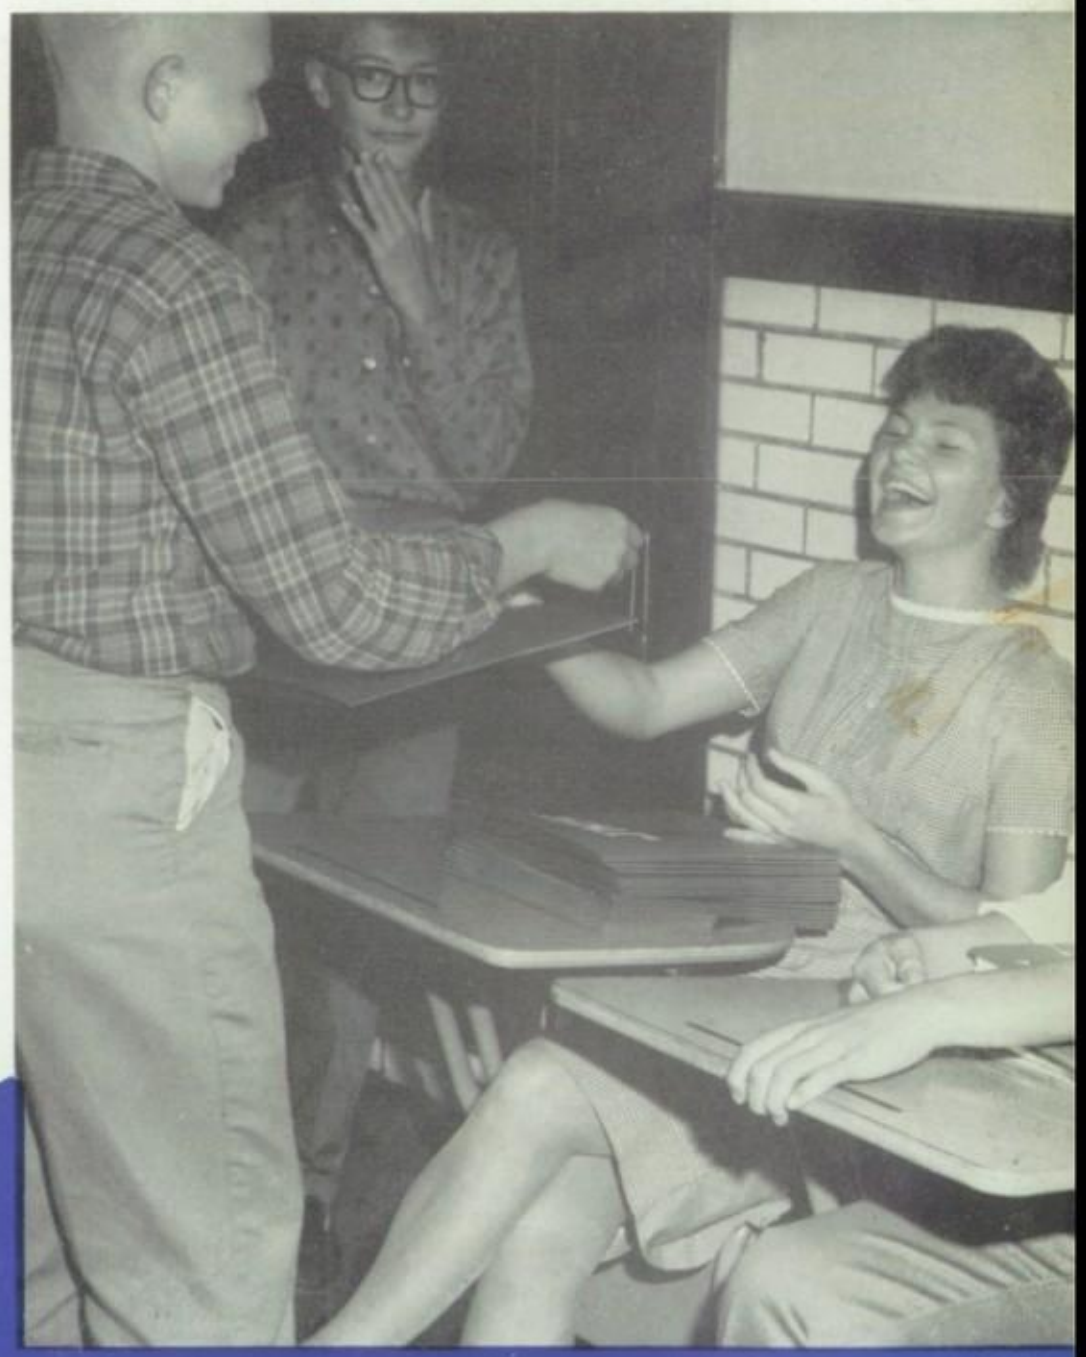
We are about to begin a voyage through this year at Jacksonville High School. As on any voyage, we have some novice seamen, polliwogs, and some veterans, "shellbacks."

The Book & Play

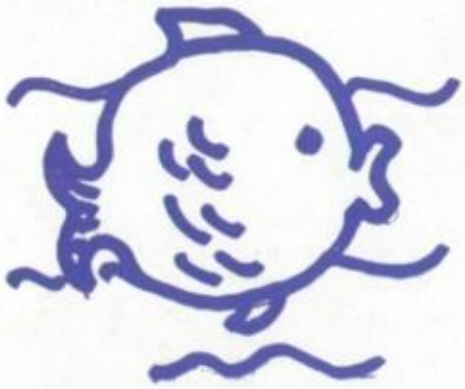
Pay now and wait?. . . !
(for what?)

The polliwogs will learn the ways of the sea from the shellbacks. We will brave the storms and the calms; we'll enjoy a great deal of smooth sailing. There will be trying times and moments of leisure, events to be cherished and incidents to be forgotten. Let's set the sails and CAST OFF!

And only ten cents . . . plus tax.!



S. S. JACKSONVILLE



"Enthusiasm does it"

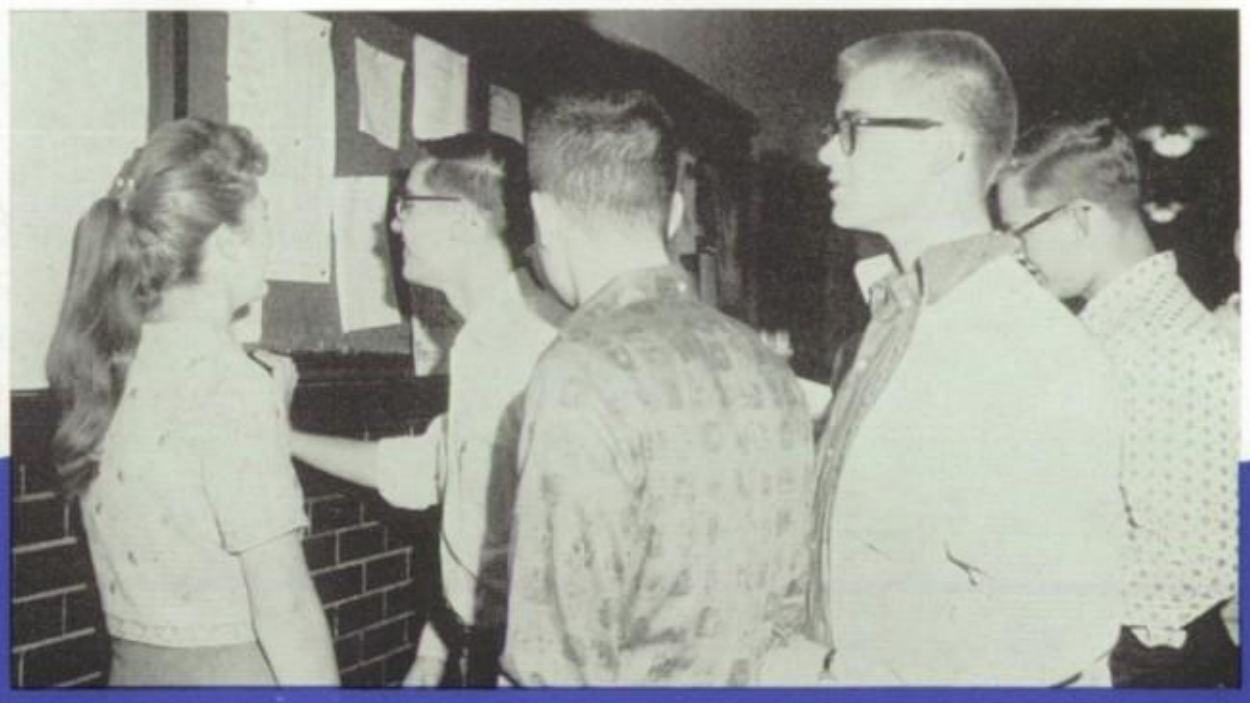
Queen for a day.

As we come aboard ship, all of us are either beginning or finishing an important chapter in the log of our lives. The length of this chapter depends upon how intensely we participate in high school life.

For the polliwogs a new way of life awaits as they walk up the gangplank. For the seniors a memory-filled cruise is about to begin. Many incidents will be fondly remembered. But, since we cannot relive any part of our lives, some incidents will be recalled with regret.

As the voyage begins, we are all individuals, all independent. We will have to learn to cooperate and work together, yet not lose our individual identities. We will have to learn to take the squalls and the calms in our stride, realizing that eventually the wind must freshen and we can proceed.

Where is your homeroom?



Jacksonville High School, 500 West State — Our Alma Mater.

For a most Successful Year

The length of the voyage depends on the standard of measurement. Measured in days and years, our voyage is surprisingly short. But measured in memories and lessons learned from the book of life, it is quite long.

Who put that dent in the fender? Sheila did

Dear Sheila

It took me all summer to get you! But I finally got it. Time flies. One day I was a silly old soaring freshman year and went by so fast. One day I was a silly old soaring freshman going into a new school. I really thought I was big. I don't know where time goes. Day after tomorrow we go back to the old grind. We'll be big. Look out Ha Ha! We've had a lot of fun during our stretch year. I hope Duke get together like we did last year. This year it is going to be tuff! But fun. I hope we are friends for ever.

September 1, 1960 . . . Anchors Aweigh!

Our Cruise Began Beneath a Tropical Sun.

We came to JHS on a hot day last September, some awaiting new experiences, but most of us awaiting only new versions of the old ones. We met our friends, received our schedules, went to our classes, and paid our fees. All of us could eat lunch together that day for the last time — the three-shift lunch was going into effect.

The first social event of the year was the All-School Dance held September 9 at the gym. A combo, the Playboys from Quincy, played for dancing. Everyone agreed that they were great and that the dance was a big success. The Student Council sponsored this event and sold refreshments.

One, two, three—ouch—four.

Got your activity ticket?

Last fall we planned to take the school by storm; however, with knees trembling, we found that our status would grow as the years progressed.

Many new experiences came our way this year. We built our first float, which was raided by the seniors. Then we elected class officers for the first time. We entered high school sports and became J'ettes and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. We had a class party in November. For the first time we declined Latin nouns and wrote semester exams.

Now that we are old hands, we are ready to give the class of '65 some good advice about being freshmen.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Our varsity cheerleaders, and we're proud of them.

Our six varsity cheerleaders led us excellently this year. Elected last May, they worked during the summer on pep and precision. This practice was very evident throughout the year, for their cheering was outstanding. Three seniors, Cathy Crawford, Bunny Rosenberger, and Betty Moore, and three juniors, Sally Cisne, Beverly Trull, and Barb Trull, comprise the squad.

The junior varsity cheerleaders are sophomores, Margaret Upchurch, Cindy Tomlovich, Susie Hembrough, and Gerri Schillinger, and freshmen, Janis Minor and Janet Crocker. These girls were elected in September and have cheered with a lot of pep at all of our games.

Both squads must work together for most activities during the year. They all attended cheerleading clinic in October; they were part of the homecoming court and did a great deal of work for homecoming. The many assemblies they presented were always peppy, well-done, and a great morale booster.

"I say there, Bev."

These six underclassmen made us peppy all year.

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

The J'ette pledge is "I am a J'ette. As a J'ette, I pledge: to yell at pep assemblies, to support all sport activities, to be neat in appearance, to be an outstanding citizen, and to be loyal and faithful in all ways to my club and to my school."

The J'ettes play a big part in school spirit, looking peppy in their outfits.

Homecoming

Surprised and happy,
our 1960 Homecoming Queen,
Miss Bunny Rosenberger.

Homecoming, for many the most exciting day of the year, was truly a wonderful event in 1960. The air was filled with anxiety about getting floats finished, the school and gym decorated, and winning the game. As October 14 arrived, we found the school beautifully decorated by the senior girls. Co-captains Ron Tomhave and Gary Spangenberg announced the queen, Miss Bunny Rosenberger, in an assembly which preceded the parade.

The parade, which consisted of the band and many cars and floats, was definitely an exciting event in the day. The traditional JHS lantern was presented to FFA for first place. Second place went to Juniors, third place to Sophomores.

Lookin' fer som'pin?

C'mon J'ettes—YELL!

The Sophomores put 'em in Dutch.

Don't get lost in the jungle, Juniors!

Wait your turn, Ronnie!

Highlighting Homecoming were the game and dance Friday evening. The Jerseyville Panthers put up a tough fight against the mighty Crimsons for an exciting game. At the end of the first half, the score stood 0-0. The last half proved entirely different, however. Seniors Gary Spangenberg, Jack McCarty, and Ken Norton gathered 21 points for JHS.

The dance following the game was a perfect end to the day's activities. Bunny, crowned queen by J'ette President Nancy Heaton, reigned over the dance and her court, which consisted of J'ettes and cheerleaders escorted by the varsity football players. The gym, beautifully decorated, added a lot to everyone's enjoyment of the dance.

First prize again for FFA.

Of course, the seniors are proud of their work.

Hup, two, three, four!

Dim lights, soft music, beautiful decorations.

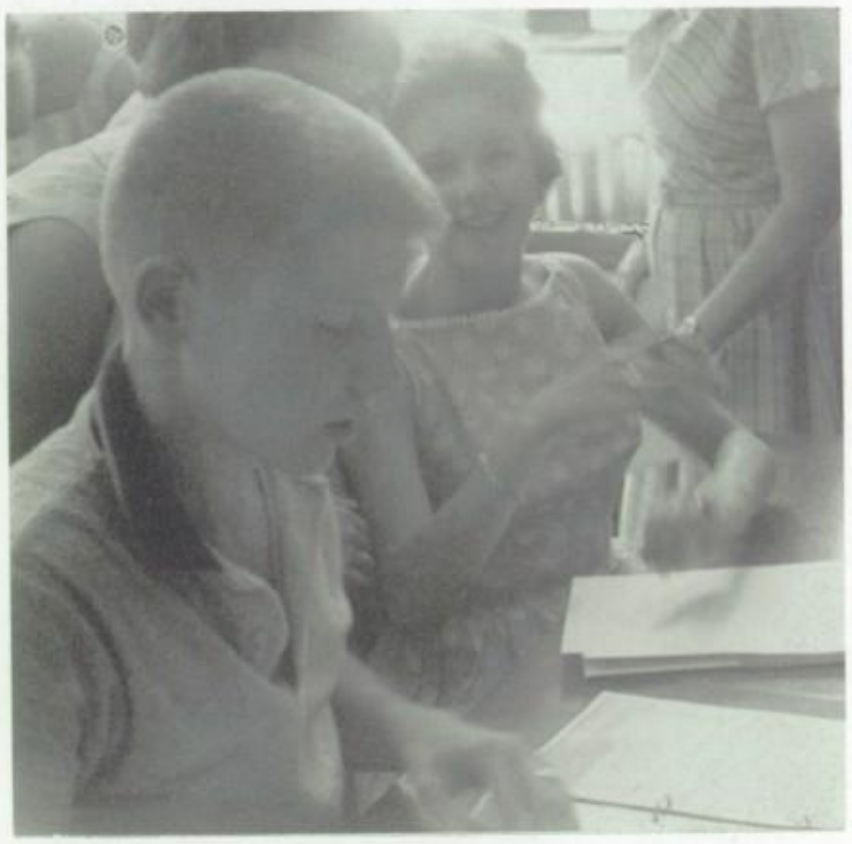
"J" Staff

"Anyone who remains calm in the midst of all this confusion simply does not understand the situation," states a card on the wall above the editors' table in Miss Self's room. If one entered Room 105 during the sixth hour, he would see groups or individuals writing copy, counting money, sorting or peering at pictures, looking through old "J"s, writing picture captions, drawing layouts, and a variety of other activities. All these activities, appearing to be confusion, are the operations that eventually produce a Crimson "J".

The editors, Betsy and Cary, and our advisor, Miss Self, began over a year ago planning our "J" for 1961. As soon as school started, the work began piling on. Pictures had to be scheduled and taken, copy written and revised, and deadlines met. No member of the staff had an easy job; we all played our part in making the final product, this book which presents the activities, the people, and the memories of 1960-1961 at JHS.



A little less talk, and a little more work!

The Herald Staff has the heavy task of getting the Herald ready for publication. It is through the leadership of the Herald editor, Karen Strang, that the Herald is out and ready to read on Friday.

Jacksonville High School is proud of Mr. Benson, Karen Strang, the Herald Staff, and the Herald Club for putting out the best paper in the state. Congratulations, gang!

Mr. Benson is advisor of the club and it is through his advice and help that the members of the club turn in their well written articles. He helps them write articles that are interesting to the readers.

Crimson Frolics

The 1960 Crimson Frolics, well-titled "Sing a Song to Chase the Blues Away," was a fast-moving, talent-filled show. Jim Henderson, master of ceremonies, carried us through the evening superbly.

A new feature of the show this year was scenery changes for each act. The scenery was excellently made, skillfully managed, and added much to the atmosphere of the show.

Besides the acts pictured, many others such as "Romeo and Juliet," "9 o'clock," "Big D," and the Luminettes provided excellent entertainment.

The faculty committee put in many hours of work as did the students participating. Congratulations to all for a wonderful show that really "chased the blues away" in a grand style.

We entered last September as "in-betweeners" — higher than freshmen but not yet enjoying the privileges of upperclassmen. We started this year off with a project. We made ourselves known throughout the halls by selling notebooks with JHS on the front.

Our boys took an important part in sports, while the girls backed all the teams enthusiastically.

Now we have ordered our class rings, elected our new class officers, cheerleaders, and J'ettes, and are looking forward hopefully to the next two years as JHS upperclassmen.

The "Crew of Our Ship" consists of many people. The Board of Education is the main governing body of our whole school system. Many important decisions are made here.

Jewell A. Mann is superintendent of our school district. He and Merle Wade, assistant superintendent of schools, have their offices in the high school. They oversee well all the work of our school district.

The Board of Control, made up of Mr. Mann, Mr. Agger, a faculty member, a high school alumnus, a Board of Education member, the president and another member of the Student Council, has supervision over the expenditure of money by the extra-curricular activities.

John Agger, the principal of JHS, has a great responsibility concerning our school. He is very fair and gives all activities consideration. Farrel Patterson is the assistant principal. He has many duties but finds time to be a friend to the students.

In addition to Mr. Patterson's job as assistant principal, he is dean of boys. He assists students in choosing a college and other guidance. Elsie Evans is dean of girls. She performs many of the same duties for girls as Mr. Patterson does for boys. Miss Evans administers all of the tests we take in large groups.

The secretaries at JHS perform many jobs of which most of us are unaware. Helen Harney and Wanda Votsmier keep many records and have many duties in the principal's office. Esther Miller works in the office of the deans. The library secretary is Fran Chumley.

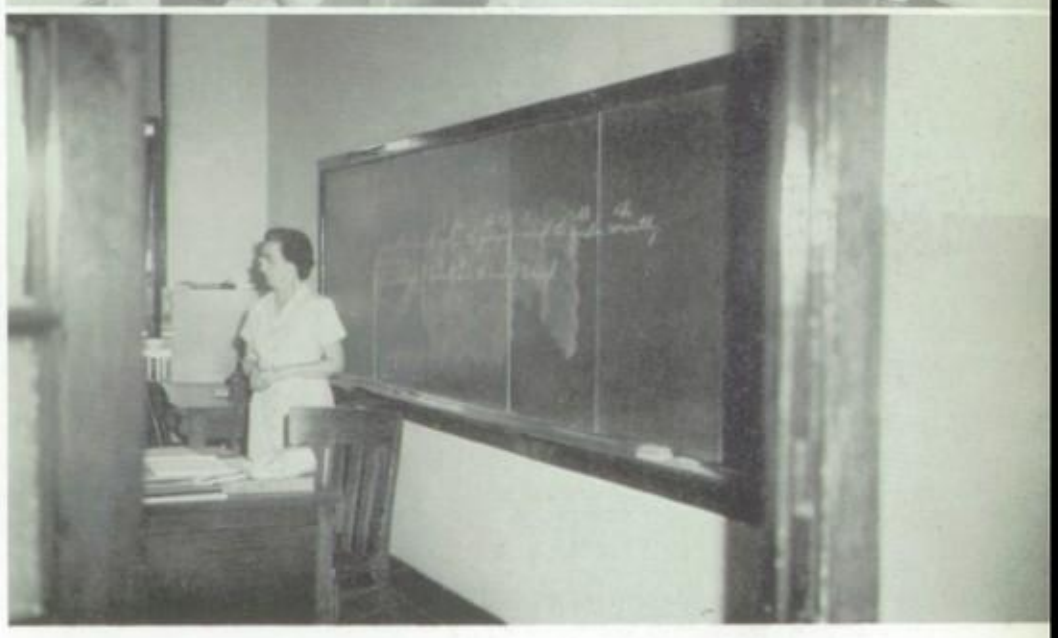
English

Now hear this!!

Oh, Miss Richards—



Our English department at JHS is striving to help all students improve in the four areas of communications: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. This aim is fulfilled by different types of classes suited to the need of students. In the college entrance classes formal methods of writing and more classical literature are studied. Within the college entrance group are A and B classes which are composed of students with excellent abilities and a desire to study English. The general English classes are geared to the students who will be leaving school after high school. As well as studying the required literature and writing, they study the practical aspects of English, such as letter writing and modern works. For students who need special work in the fundamental skills there are remedial classes the first three years. All these classes compose the English Department.

Math and Science

We are living in an age of science. At no other time in history have science and math been emphasized so much. Courses range from general science to senior math, a trigonometry course.

Mr. Phillip Clary, Mr. Norman Richard, Mr. Bernard Gregory, and Mr. Russell Hubbert teach general science, giving students a basic understanding of the scientific world. Mr. Richard and Mr. Hubbert teach biology, making the world of nature come alive. The chemistry lab is filled with bubbling chemicals as Mr. Gregory teaches his students about the basic elements making up the universe. Mr. Donald Meyer heads the physics department. This year he is teaching a new course explaining physics theoretically.

Science and math go hand in hand. General math, like general science, teaches fundamental ideas. Mr. John S. May and Mrs. Erma Johnston teach this subject. Mr. John M. Hollowell, Mr. May, and Mrs. Johnston teach algebra — the language of mathematics. Geometry is the study of surfaces and angles. It teaches methodical proving of statements. Miss Elsie Evans and Mr. Roger McClintock teach geometry. Advanced algebra adds to the knowledge gained during the first year algebra course. It is taught by Mr. Hollowell. Mr. McClintock teaches senior math, the most difficult math course at JHS. It deals with trigonometry and analytical geometry.

"For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction" . . . which means you are sure to get into trouble.

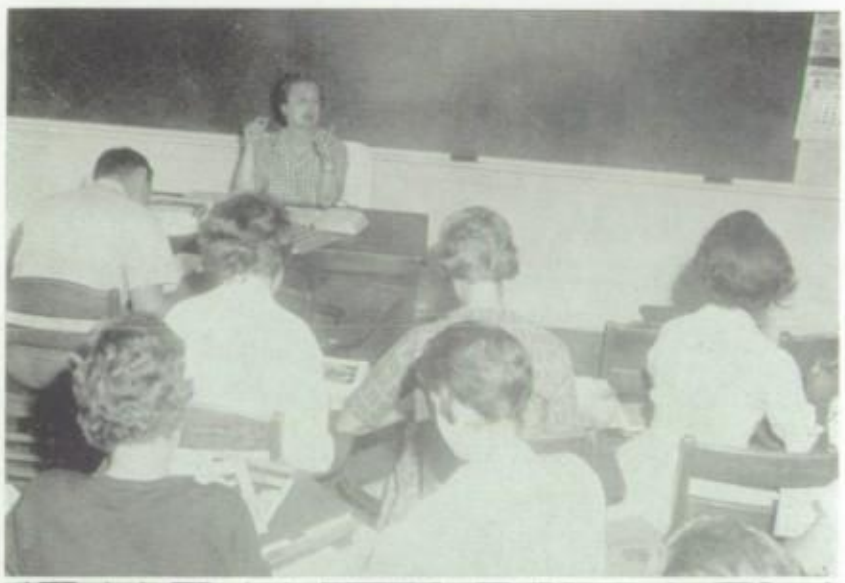
Social Studies and Languages

Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres, . . .
Say folks . . .



Included in the social studies department are democratic living, world geography, world history, American history, sociology, economics, and problems of democracy. Although the classes are concerned with different areas, they all assist the student in understanding the various human relationships: social, economic, political, and historical.

American history, taught by French V. Flynn, Farrell Patterson, and Frank Moffitt, is a required subject of all students. Economics, a semester course for seniors, is also taught by Mr. Flynn, while Mr. Moffitt has the Problems in Democracy class. Gladys Rust teaches both democratic living, for freshmen, and sociology, a senior course. World history classes are taught by Orin V. Duncan and Gertrude Beggs. Fergene Goddin teaches world geography.

Language occupies an important place in our world. As we try to understand and cooperate with people of other nations, it is necessary to speak their language. Mabel Ruyle teaches all French students, while she and Vesta Taylor share the Spanish classes. In these classes the people and many aspects of the country are studied as well as the language.

Latin ,taught by Ruby Mann and Elma Savage, is designed to teach the student to read and understand the Latin language as well as the culture of ancient Rome.

Vocational Education

The Vocational Department at JHS provides students with the opportunity to learn about and experience creating tangible products from their work.

General, wood, and machine shops are taught by Kermit Reside and Robert Allen. Advanced drawing and building trades are both under the supervision of Dale G. Harris. Diversified occupations, a program in which students attend school in the morning and work at a job in the afternoon, is headed by John Chapman.

William A. Fortschneider is our new instructor in agriculture. In the ag classes farming methods and problems, soil, and farm management are studied. Home economics is designed to teach high school girls the understanding and development of those skills which are necessary for homemaking. Edna Osborne and Donna DeLong teach all of the homemaking classes.

Courses offered in the commercial field are typing, shorthand, and business training, taught by Mildred H. Silva and Mildred Pierson; bookkeeping and business law are taught by Ralph Welles. In these classes students learn to understand the business community and have training in the various business fields.

Driver training, under the supervision of Al Rosenberger, is another very practical course. The students learn the theory of driving, acquire proper attitudes and techniques, and have behind-the-wheel training.

Mr. Allen replaced Mr. Stanton early in the year.

Time for another timing!

Various Fields of Education

Forward march!

All the fine young Robin Hoods.

Music at JHS is in three different areas: vocal, under the supervision of Ray Springs; band, directed by James Welch; orchestra, headed by Richard A. Moorhouse. Among the vocal classes are the glee clubs, boys chorus, Crimson Chorus, and A Cappella Choir. As these groups progress, it is increasingly hard to become members of them. They have all been outstanding this year under our new director. Our band has continued its same excellent performances. They march at our football games and in parades, play at basketball games, and provide good concerts during the year. The orchestra, though not as large as the band, helps the students greatly and plays well.

Anna Doan teaches art, art crafts, commercial art, and design. In these courses students learn the various techniques and the appreciation of art.

Health and physical education are taught by Marjorie Howard, Eloise Ridder, and Robert Kraushaar. Thomas Carmody teaches physical education the whole day. Physical education, including one semester of health, is required of all students.

Ruth Wade is the supervisor of study hall all six periods of the day at JHS.

There are two special education classes at JHS. The freshmen and sophomores are taught by Lela Fairfield. Thomas McKinney teaches the juniors and seniors.

Student Council

Student Council is the governing body of JHS. A student interested in belonging to Student Council must submit a written paper in essay form expressing why he wants to become a Student Council representative. The representatives are then chosen by the officers of Student Council on the basis of their essays.

The Council meets once a week during school time to discuss the problems and ideas of the school as a whole. The traditional projects were the first all-school dance, the Homecoming dance, the Christmas dance, the last all-school dance, and the Christmas assembly.

The new projects this year were planting trees around JHS, corresponding with a foreign student, and participating in the Cancer Drive.

Alice Seestrom

Band

The Jacksonville High School Band is composed of one hundred three musicians and five majorettes. It is led during the marching band season by a very charming and capable drum majorette, Alice Seestrom.

The band plays for all of the local football games and one out-of-town game. The theme this year was "The Sound of Music." The half time shows were enjoyed by all and truly showed that a lot of time and work had been put in on them. The "pep" band played at all of the home basketball games.

Throughout the year the band also participated in many other activities, such as parades, the Christmas Concert, the Spring Concert, and the May Festival. Every year some of the members take solos and ensembles to District and State Music Contest.

The officers this year were as follows: President, Gilbert Mulch; Vice-President, Donna Fiedler; Secretary, Janet Black; Assistant Secretary, Rosalyn Wagner; and Treasurer, Charlet Crocker.

The band is not only admired here in Jacksonville, but it has become known all over the state as an excellent organization. The band is certainly an asset to our school, and we students are very proud of it. Mr. James Welch, the director, is certainly to be congratulated for his fine instruction.

Orchestra

The orchestra is composed of thirty strings. There are eight first violins, nine second violins, five violas, three cellos, four bases, and one piano.

The orchestra played at their Pop's Concert, a Spring Concert, the May Festival, and Commencement. Each year some of the members go to District and State Music Contest. There were two people who attended the All-State Music Conference.

This year the orchestra has had a new director, Mr. Richard Moorhouse. He has done a lot to improve the orchestra this year.

A Cappella Choir

A Cappella Choir is made up of sixty-six members from the four classes. Members are chosen from try-outs which present their voice qualities. A Cappella Choir is our most select vocal group. Its part in the Frolics as well as the Christmas Vespers and Spring Festival will always be remembered. The Choir also presented an operetta based on the show Oklahoma.

Crimson Chorus, our advanced girls' vocal organization, is composed of girls from the four classes. This year the chorus has been very active taking part in the program for the Freshman Open House, Christmas Vespers, and the Spring Festival. Our vocal department is under the direction of Mr. Ray Springs.

Y Council

The "Y" Council is a very active organization in our high school. It plans and is in charge of all of the dances after the games and special holiday dances.

The group meets every week on Wednesday. The members include four boys or girls from each class, four girls from Tri-Hi-Y, four boys from Hi-Y, and the officers of the "Y" Council.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y was very active this year. They attended Thanksgiving services, made courtesy cards, sent members to the state legislature and to the Hi-Y conference, and earned money for the World Service. Every year they sponsor a hat and coat check at the home basketball games. This year their president is Gordon Heaton, and they are sponsored by Mr. Meyer.

Tri-Hi-Y

Tri-Hi-Y is a service organization. This year the club has been divided into three separate clubs—the senior, the junior, and the sophomore clubs. The purpose of Tri-Hi-Y is to "create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian living in the home, school, and comunmity."

The clubs undertake many projects throughout the year. This year two of the special ones were helping the students at the School for the Blind and making a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family.

First row: Teryl Garrison, Vicki Allen, Imogene Campbell, Carole Reynolds, Judy Smith, Jane Sorrells. Second row: Norma Siegrist, Janet Weller, Karen Henderson, Genie Sue Davis, Gerri Schillinger, Merle DeWeese. Third row: Suzanne Hartman, Gratia Dickman, Carol Martin, Linda Essex, Sally Manlove, Pat Watson, Judy Spink, Jeanne Odaffer. Fourth row: Beverly Fox, Sue Wilson, Maurene Vernor, Judi Bourn, Linda Chandler, Mindy Vasconcellos, Joan Lake, Susan McHatton.

Electronics Club

The Electronics Club is an informal club, which deals with the many fields of electronics. A group of boys meets every Wednesday morning to discuss their mutual interests in electronics. This year the boys are planning to build a brain, or electric computer. They will send for a kit, and then each boy will participate in assembling it. The computer, when completely assembled, will add, subtract, multiply, divide, and they hope, will compose music.

There are many career opportunities open in the field of electronics. Large companies, such as General Electric, and the Armed Services furnish some of these job opportunities.

Bob Engle is the president of the club. Stacy Leffler is the vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Mr. Meyer sponsors the club.

Projectionists Club

The Projectionists Club is one of the newer organizations at JHS this year. It is now in its second year. The members are taught how to run and care for the film propection equipment. The members are then qualified to operate the films in the classrooms, work which provides them with enjoyment while they are also serving the teachers and their fellow-classmates. The club meets on every other Friday at 8:00 a.m. This year the president is Russell Hicks and the secretary is Larry Dale Sullivan. The Projectionists Club is under the direction of Mr. Meyer. The members feel that they have accomplished very much and believe the club should be continued through the years.

Science Club

The Science Club is composed of two divisions. They are the physical and biological division of science. The first Wednesday of the month the Physical Science Club meets; the second Wednesday, the Biology Club; the third Wednesday, the Planning Committee; and the fourth Wednesday, a general program is given for all the members of the club. There are talks, educational films, field trips, and demonstrations given during the club time.

Some of the students enter projects in the District Science Fair. These projects deal with the many phases of science.

The club is sponsored by Mr. Richard, Mr. Clary, and Mr. Hubbert.

Special Education

The Special Education Department in our high school was the first state-approved high school program in Illinois. It was begun in the late nineteen forties.

The two teachers in this department are Mrs. Fairfield, who teaches the underclassmen; and Mr. McKinney, who teaches the upperclassmen. Mrs. Fairfield teaches reading, English grammar, mathematics, science, home economics, and as much driver training as can be taught in the class room. Mr. McKinney teaches health, shop, home economics, the United States Constitution, and also continues with driver training. The students are there most of the day except for gym, glee club, and homeroom.

Forum Club

The Forum Club meets every first and third Thursday of the month. They have speakers from various fields and discussions concerning problems facing modern America. A special project every year is the "Sadie Hawkins" Dance. They also have a party at the beginning and at the end of the year for the members of the club. The club is sponsored by Miss Leonhard.

Red Cross Council

The Red Cross Council is a service organization made up of volunteer students. Some of the most important projects of the Council this year were making octopuses for the children in hospitals, working on bloodmobile cards, and giving a Christmas party for the veterans at the State Hospital. The Council has made octopuses for the children in hospitals for six straight years. The Red Cross Council is a very active and valuable club. Mrs. Wade sponsors the club.

Rifle Club

In Rifle Club the members improve their skill in target shooting at the Illinois College rifle range. They meet every Thursday afternoon at four. Many of the members have won awards for their shooting ability and have participated in state and national meets. Mr. McKinney is the sponsor of the Rifle Club.

Spanish Club

El Club Espanol or Spanish Club is the only foreign language club in the high school. Its members consist of the pupils in the advanced Spanish class. Besides during the class time, they meet on two Fridays out of the month. During the class time everyone speaks games, and music which are planned by the members. only in Spanish. The program usually consists of skits,

G.A.A.

The Girls Athletic Association is a club for all girls that are interested in sports. The outdoor activities include softball, archery, badminton, and soccer. The indoor sports include basketball, volleyball, trampoline, table tennis, shuffleboard, and tumbling. The club operates on a point system. G.A.A. meets after school on Monday and Wednesday. In addition, there are picnics, wiener roasts, and the annual overnight party at Mac Murray Cabin.

The Great Books Club

The Great Books Club is composed of students who have a sincere interest in the classics and books of worth. The members choose the great books they wish to read and discuss. Two club meetings are usually devoted to the discussion of one book. Ivanhoe was one of the books discussed this year. In their discussion the members come to some conclusion on the author's purpose in writing the particular book, how he achieves this purpose, and why the book has become a great book.

Library Club

The Library Club meets every first and third Monday. The advisor is Mrs. Clupper. The officers this year are: President, Barbara Johnson; Vice-President, Karla Warcup; Secretary, Margie Duggins; Assistant Secretary, Sue Wilson; Program Chairman, Kay DeLong; Reporter, Kay Watson; Historian, Linda Pevey. Some of the other activities of the club include a hayride, Christmas party, spring trip, and the area banquet.

Ushers Club

The Ushers Club is primarily a service organization. The meetings are held regularly after or before school. The members of this club are selected from a group of volunteers at the beginning of the school year. They are then issued red and white jackets which give them recognition for their hard work. The ushers assist at all school presentations given in our auditorium. They also assist at the basketball games. The Ushers Club is very important and worthwhile here at JHS.

Junior Misses Club

The Junior Misses Club meets the second and fourth Thursdays of the month. They have service projects throughout the year, such as collecting food for the basket which they give the needy at Christmas. They have outside speakers and discussions about school problems during their club time. The sponsor of the club is Mrs. Savage.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers Club of Jacksonville High School has programs concerning home-life which are of interest to each member. Their special meetings are the initiation and the Christmas party. To join this club, you must have taken at least one semester of home economics. The club is sponsored by Miss Osborne and Mrs. DeLong.

The Future Farmers of America have many activities for each season. In the fall the boys enter a livestock judging contest, run the concession stand at the football games, and travel to Kansas City for the FFA National Convention. In the winter they go to Chicago for the National Livestock Show, sell popcorn at the basketball games, and select one boy to attend the Illinois Agriculture Association FFA Convention. They enter a Soil Judging Contest, have a roller-skating party, and hold their annual Parent and Son Banquet in the spring. The Agriculture Show in Carrollton is the main event of the summer.

A football team needs many qualities to carry it through a rough season of games. First, it needs good coaching. Next, it needs experienced players who have the desire to play hard and fast. Most important, the team as a whole must be fortified with "heart" to fight down to the last second of every game. Any winning football team must possess these important attributes.

Football is certainly not an easy game. Some people think it is a game for the big muscle-bound idiots. This was probably true once but is no longer. The football team of today must be sharp of wit and on its toes at all times.

The spectator must remember that football is not breath-taking passes or runs. To be a player requires a steady effort on each man's part — in practice as well as in every game. The next time the Crimson team rolls into action, remember these things.

Varsity

The Jacksonville High School varsity football squad ended this season with an impressive record of 9 wins and 0 losses. This made the fourth undefeated season in five years and one to be very proud of. The Crimsons scored a total of 316 points to their opponents' 32 points. During the course of the season, they shut out a total of 5 of the 9 teams they played.

The team worked hard to produce its undefeated record. Along with the thrilling games went long, tiresome practices and drills. Much of the credit for our success goes to coaches Kraushaar and Rosenberger.

Coach Kraushaar, Coach Rosenberger.

Junior Varsity

Coaches, Mr. Gierke and Mr. Gregory.

Our two junior varsity teams followed the winning ways of the varsity team. Coach Bud Gierke's sophomore squad finished its season with a flawless record, winning 8 games and losing none. Coach Bernard Gregory's freshman team also had a successful season with 7 wins and only 1 loss. These are fine records, and the teams deserve a great deal of praise for their hard work.

Although these boys work hard, they receive little support or recognition. This is a regrettable fact. More people should attend these games, for they are often as exciting as the varsity games. Go to one sometime and see for yourself.

The two teams practice together every night after school, much as the varsity does. On the junior varsity team the players are taught the fundamentals of a good football game. Basic tackling and blocking techniques are drilled on and fundamental plays are learned. More important, the players are taught to work as a team and the quality of sportsmanship is instilled. The boys are prepared to be better players, the future Crimsons.

Basketball, that game of speed and skill, is not for the lazy or weak-hearted. It is a sport in which a player must be swift of foot and of mind. The games are usually intense battles fought to the last second of play.

Although the Varsity team did not win all of its games, its record for the season was not one to be ashamed of. The fellows worked hard and long in practicing for every game.

The Junior Varsity and Freshman teams also worked many hours in steady practice. They are fine fellows, the varsity of future years.

Much credit goes to the coaches for the spirit and fight they gave our players. Also, without managers, the team would not win smoothly. In short, all who played or helped in the games are to be commended.

Varsity Basketball

The JHS Varsity basketball team developed into a real pack of wildcats by the middle of this season. Although the record does not show the complete picture, our team was a precision machine — thanks to the hard work and practice of the individual players and Mr. Chapman.

Jr. Varsity Basketball

The Junior Varsity team, under the supervision of Mr. Kraushaar, had a good season this year. These are the future varsity players who develop skill in shooting and ball-handling through practice. Congratulations, guys!

Coaches: Mr. Rosenberger, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Kraushaar.

The freshman basketball team piled up an impressive record, winning 25 while losing only 5. This was largely due to the determination of the boys and the excellent coaching of Mr. Al Rosenberger. Congratulations on a fine season.

Freshman Basketball

Wrestling

Wrestling is a sport which requires more than muscles; it takes brains and fast reflexes. JHS can be very proud of its team. A lot of credit goes to the coach, Tom Carmody, for his work in building an outstanding team.

Rifle

The JHS Rifle Team is considered to be one of the best in the state. The members participate annually in postal and shoulder-to-shoulder matches. Rifle team shooting is an individual affair and requires exact attention.

Track

The JHS thinclads turned out in large numbers for this favorite of spring sports. Our team is always a good one and brings home many victories. To see real speed, stamina, and determination, go to a track meet.

Baseball

This is a team that needs more support from fans, so let's get behind our fine team. Baseball is the great American sport, and these fellows enjoy every minute of the season. Let's go, boys!

Golf

With spring come thoughts of golf. This individual sport requires hours of practice. It is one which takes skill as well as perseverance and patience. To sink that long putt gives a measure of satisfaction. This year's team has several returning veterans, so they should do well. Good luck, fellows!

Tennis

Another great spring sport is the "love" game — tennis. Despite this nickname, tennis is a fast, exciting match of wits and muscles. Great skill and coordination are needed to win a match. Our team should do well this year, as several playes are returning to the team. Best of luck, guys! Practice hard and win.

Music Contest

Every spring, band, vocal, and orchestra students rehearse in ensembles and individually for music contest. They are directed by Mr. Springs, Mr. Welch, and Mr. Moorhouse. Both district and state contests were in April and May this year. Contests helps the students develop their individual abilities and the ability to play well with others.

Speech Contest

JHS students invariably give an outstanding showing each year at speech contest. This year Jono Hildner and Jim Henderson won first at sectional, entitling them to go to state. Many of the contestants participated in both district and sectional contests. The one-act play, "It's a Small World," participated in the district and sectional.

The climax of the Christmas Dance was the announcing of the 1960 Snow Court and the revealing of the King and Queen. As the couples stopped under the large green wreath at the bottom of the stairs, they were presented by the announcer Tom Dailey. The ten seniors walking before the interested spectators had been elected by a vote of the entire student body. Student Council Secretary and Flower Bearer, Mary Anne Chambers, presented flowers to the attendants. The three couples attending the Queen and King were Sharon Baker and Jack Ricks, Ann Garry and Jono Hildner, Cathy Crawford and Chipper Baldwin. After the Prince and Princess, Ron Tomhave and Bunny Rosenberger, were announced, came the long awaited announcement of the 1960 Snow King and Queen—Gary Spangenberg and Nancy Heaton. The Queen was crowned by Carolyn Williamson and presented with flowers by the Flower Bearer. After receiving a bracelet from Student Council President, Lynda Hartman, Nancy was kissed by King Gary.

The grand march then began, led by the King and Queen and members of the court. The others present then joined in the march to close the ceremonies.

Jono, Ann, Gary, Nancy, Carolyn, and Mary Anne.

Christmas Dance

Christmas trees, enormous wreaths, and streamers adorned the gym on December 22 for the Christmas Dance. This event, sponsored by the Student Council, is anxiously awaited each year. Lyn Symons' band provided music as the couples danced below soft lights.

For some the Christmas Dance was a wonderful new experience and a new aspect of high school. For others it was not the first Christmas Dance but not the last either. The seniors, however, knew this was their last Christmas Dance as JHS students and cherished every minute of it. Everyone enjoyed the dance and appreciated greatly all the work of the Student Council.

On March 17 the class of 1961, under the direction of Miss Janes, gave an outstanding performance of Joseph Kesselring's Arsenic and Old Lace.

Abby and Martha Brewster, two kindly old maids, through their charitable deeds have poisoned twelve lonely old men. Teddy Brewster, their insane nephew, who thinks he is Teddy Roosevelt, buries his aunts' "gentlemen" in the cellar. Teddy believes these men to have died of yellow fever. When Jonathan, another nephew, shows up, trouble begins. Jonathan is criminally insane and Doctor Einstein has helped him escape from prison. They plan to set up shop in Brooklyn so that Einstein can operate and change Jonathan's face. The play takes an unexpected twist when Jonathan finds out about his aunts' twelve "gentlemen." Mortimer, the youngest nephew, is able to successfully clear up the whole situation.

Oklahoma!

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A-! You're OK! came from the rehearsals on many a spring night.

The A Cappella Choir, directed by Ray Springs, spent many hours this spring preparing to present Oklahoma! by Rodgers and Hammerstein on April 13 and 14. The choir members composed all the committees as well as being characters in the show.

The main cast was Laurey, Sharon Murphy; Curley, Mike Biggs; Ado Annie, Ann Garry; Will, Fred Busche; Aunt Eller, Janet Schroeder; Jud, Richard Spencer; Ali Hakim, Tom Dailey; Carnes, Malcolm Portee.

The secondary parts were portrayed by Susan Beggs, Susan Weller, Lynda Hartman, Barbara Pigott, Cathy Crawford, Betty Moore, Katie Michalson, Kaaren Middendorf, Dean Low, Lando Eitzen, Jim Henderson, Jack Ricks, Gregg Scholes, Don Jolly, Dennis McHatton, Ken Robertson, and Gary Spangenberg. Among these were the understudies for the lead parts.

Fifteen other choir members composed the chorus, both singing and dancing. Four very important people, although not on stage, were Nancy Conant, choreographer; Chipper Baldwin, stage manager; Janet Robbins, production manager; Alanna Heiss, accompanist. These people, the other choir members, and Mr. Springs can be congratulated for an excellent performance.

Latin Banquet

Even the royalty have smelly feet!

Dido's palace in Carthage was the scene of this year's Latin banquet. The advanced class, consisting of third and fourth year students, was host to the second year pupils. The banquet was served by sixteen slaves selected from the guests by the advanced class. Sham whippings and other acts of servitude were performed at the command of Dido and her court. After the banquet, with everyone in costume befitting the times, a program carrying out the theme was presented. "Bellum Incipit" (a war begins), "Monologia" (an original monologue), "Fuga ex Troia" (the flight from Troy), and "Sic Parcae Volvere" (thus the Fates unroll) were skits and speeches given by the hosts as entertainment.

Five lashes for a disobedient slave.

Too bad we don't have slaves like these every day!

Three down—one to go! We look back with pride over the last three years and ahead with anticipation to our year as "Big Seniors."

This year we participated in varsity sports and cheerleading. We were members of National Honor Society, A Cappella Choir, Band, Orchestra, Crimson Chorus, J'ettes, and various other activities.

At Homecoming our float won second prize, and we sold the traditional mums. During the spring we worked many hours on our prom. It was well worth it.

Now, at graduation time, we are acting as junior marshalls for the commencement of the class of '61 and wishing them farewell as we eagerly try to take their places.

Sheila
I hope you have had as much fun this year as I have. It was a lot of fun and I will never forget it. You are a nice, sweet and loveable girl and will go places I know. lots of luck in the future. I think you should go to Hollwood the work would do you good.

Hey! Let's watch those knees!

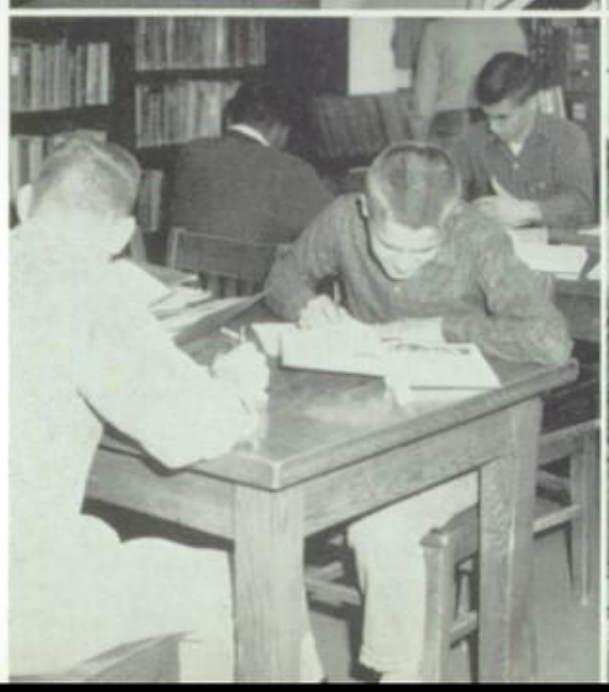
Darn, that question's hard.

And if elected, I will ----

Now THERE is a question.

Quiet! Genius at work.

Help!



The banquet provided entertainment for all.

The Prom

March 24, 1961, was the night long-awaited by JHS students — the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The Banquet program was opened with an invocation by master of ceremonies James Siegrist. The Junior Class president and Prom co-chairman David Middendorf presented "Star Light, Star Bright," followed by John Wright, Senior Class president, giving "Stargazing."

David Middendorf, Beverly Hess.

We could have danced all night . . . . and did.

A Junior sextet, consisting of Joy French, Bev Hess, Barbara Bacon, Katie Michalson, Kaaren Middendorf, and Christine Cleeland, accompanied by Pat Moorhouse, sang "Stardust." Beverly Hess, Prom co-chairman, talked about "Our Stellar Past." Christie Elliott gave us "Starbound." The sextet then sang the song whose title furnished the theme, "When You Wish Upon a Star." The program was closed humorously by Christine Cleeland's "Cross Your Palms with Stars." The decorations for the evening were centered around the theme, "When You Wish Upon a Star." Many silver and blue stars hung from the chandeliers. The wishing well and life-sized silhouettes were very beautiful, too.

We danced to the music of Bill Oetzel and his orchestra. After the banquet, prom, parties, movie, and breakfast, we thought our wish upon a star had come true.

"When You Wish Upon a Star."

A Star-filled evening.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society has four principal objectives: Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service. To be elected into the society one must maintain a high scholastic average besides meeting high standards in character, leadership, and service. Our school's chapter meets monthly at members' homes. Each March there is an induction ceremony for new members.

Cary Andras, Janet Schroeder, and Bill Stanford, maintaining a straight A average throughout thei four years at JHS, have achieved the well-deserved honor of valedictorian. Betsy Manlove, with an almost perfect record, is salutatorian. This fine group of students have also been leaders in extra-curricular activities. Their interests vary from sports to dramatics. Congratulations for a job very well done!

This year Bunny Rosenberger was chosen to receive the D. A. R. award and Jono Hildner was chosen for the S. A. R. award. They were selected by election of their classmates and a vote of the faculty. To qualify for these awards a student must possess the qualities of dependabiliy, service, leadership, and patriotism. The Class of 1961 is very proud of Bunny and Jono, both outstanding members of our class.

Senior Advisor

The graduating class of 1961 wishes to express its sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. Farrel Patterson.

Mr. Patterson, you have been a wonderful friend to all of us. Our Prom, our Senior Play, and the success of each of us have been the result of your faith and backing.

You have made us proud to be a part of the class of 1961.

Seniors

Officers

John Wright - - - President

Ken Robertson - - Vice-President

Janet Schroeder - - - Secretary

Barbara Pigott - - - Treasurer

Ken Robertson, Janet Schroeder, Barb Pigott, John Wright.

We glided through the first all-school dance knowing we were beginning the end. Our Homecoming was fabulous — our school looked great; we had our own private snake dance, parade, pep-assembly; our float was made with hopes and dreams; and we crowned the whole affair with our queen and dance. All our hearts were with our undefeated football team. With Royal Court, holly, and song we shared the enthusiasm of the Christmas holidays.

Humor, the spirit of Broadway, work and fun made a big success of Arsenic and Old Lace, Oklahoma, and our Minstrel. The Prom left many memories. Wonderful but sad, graduation was — the end.

First row: Mr. Reside, Miss Self, Miss Evans, Mrs. Clupper, Miss Leonhard. Second row: Mr. Moffitt, Mr. Welles, Mr. Harris, Mr. Duncan, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Flynn.

Sheila—
We've been through thick and thin together this year.
Can't say it hasn't been fun.
I want to wish you good luck with Lynn. We certainly is a sharp boy! I'd like to get to know Lynn + Bob better. If we don't have any classes together next year I'll just dream. I hope we have a ball this summer. Never, never forget the times we had at "Normal! It was a scream.
Especially that Sat. nite at 12 while we were watching "people" out the back screendoor.
You'll get your hair net to my best friend
(Ha!) again good luck to my best friend who has a wild personality and knows everybody (& I mean everybody!)

Love "ya" always

Diana

Best of luck in 61-62 and don't forget good old Spanish class.
